

COLLIN MEYER

FILM / THEATRE

BIOGRAPHY

CollinTheBushman is a captivating storyteller and familiar face in the arts, heritage & cultural space in Cape Town. Originally from the Boland Wine-route area, working in various communities focusing primarily on Khoi cultural restorative and healing processes. Collin offers Khoi mouth-bow playing workshops dealing with indigenous cosmology. Since the late 90s the work & the music he plays has been refined into a mature blend of spoken word & indigenous bushman music. Collin is a man of many Khoi bushman stories. He loves his khãb, a mouth-bow. He shares a few tips on playing this musical instrument while on story-sharing-walks. Also involved in theatre Collin has been working with director & playwright, Abdu Adams on a one man show he wrote & produced himself called GATVOL SE OSMOSES.

Also working with trailblazer rapper Jitsvinger, khoi legendary storyteller Jethro Louw and the AFRIKAAPS hip hop musical, Collin remains dedicated to the arts & music and his roots & heritage.

Most recent work is with theater production "DIE Poet, wies Hy" with Dean Balie and the Khoisan Gypsy Band. A spoken word & musical play that focuses on the work of the late Adam Small
