COMMERCIALS / THEATRE

BIOGRAPHY

Nita de Jager has been a part of the performing arts industry since the age of 11, joining in early 2014.

She has since featured in a few commercials and has played in three theatre productions at her school.

She was a part of a theatre production called “tot stof | tot stilte” directed by André Gerber and Anél Joubert. They went on to win the national ATKV tiener toneel competition in 2018 and she received a gold medal for her ensemble work in this production. She also played in “buite buite buite” in 2019, which was directed by Ruben Murphy. She was apart of “Uhm..” a theatre production produced by learners only, where she was crucial to the directing and writing of this project. They went on to rank as one of the top finalists of the ATKV tiener toneel. Nita was awarded gold for her towering performance in this production. Nita was also in the Top 10 of the ATKV digi-Toneel, monologue competition in 2020, with her monologue called “Lockdown is ‘n droom”. Nita lived out her passion for acting by taking drama as a main subject in matric, even joining the renowned Robyn Scott for American accent classes. Nita has added to her long list of achievements by also qualifying as one of the Top 10 Sarie Nuwe Gesigte in 2021.
